Are you a parent or teacher trying to support kids using the philosophy of nonviolence in traditional schools?

Do you sometimes struggle with how to communicate with others who don't share an empathy-led approach?

Would you like to hear how others have helped children thrive in power-over systems?

Please join us on Wednesday, February 4, 2015 from 6:30 to 8:30pm as a panel of parents, educators, and students offer their perspectives and exchange personal experiences around supporting children in a traditional school setting.
