

Bringing It All Together - Drawing Solutions Communities

Now that you've heard from the pioneers and thought leaders of education and trauma, what next? Patti Dobrowolski has given us permission to share her "Draw Your Future" video so you can take everything you've learned at the conference and start to imagine a trauma-informed future for whichever setting (educational or otherwise) you are returning to. Paper and color pencils supplied.

Patti Dobrowolski is a speaker, critically acclaimed comic performer, writer and business consultant. Her creative tools have helped to transform many Fortune 500 companies and NGOs, including FritoLay, Nike, Microsoft, Starbucks, USDA, city government offices, and The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

Louise Godbold, Co-Executive Director. Louise joined Echo five years ago as the Director of Grant Development after an extensive career as a non-profit consultant. During her 20 years of experience, she has worked for funders (the California Endowment and Los Angeles County Health & Human Services), for UC Berkeley as a technical assistance provider to California county administrations, as well as with many clients requiring strategic planning and evaluation consultation. In addition to her duties as the Co-Executive Director, Louise oversees fundraising, strategic development and program evaluation.
